THE
UNITED STATES COIN CO.
Bulletin

Vol. 1 NEW YORK, N. Y., MARCH-JUNE, 1915. No.-7-10

The BULLETIN is published as an advertising medium for this company and is not a subscription paper, but will be sent free to all persons on our mailing list. It will contain frequent numismatic articles and lists of various coins for sale at fixed prices. Any coins listed will be sent on approval to responsible parties, on receipt of satisfactory references, but preference will be given to cash orders. The United States Coin Co., 200 Fifth Ave., New York.

DELAY IN PUBLISHING BULLETIN.

Owing to pressure of business this spring we have been unable to publish the BULLETIN regularly and we are forced to consolidate the last four numbers in one. The July and August number will follow this one the first part of July.

SALE OF THE COLLECTION OF A PROMINENT AMERICAN.

This remarkable collection of United States coins was sold by us on May 19th, 20th and 21st and many new records were made especially in the copper series. The following are prices brought by some of the principal pieces:

We have prepared a printed list of prices of this sale which will be sent postpaid for $1.00; this includes if desired an extra catalogue. We still have on hand five copies of the special edition with plates, bound in fine blue cloth, price $3.00.

Collectors would do well to order one of the above editions as this sale contained the finest collection of silver coins sold since the Parmelee Sale in 1890, including the mint marks; the collection of 1794 and 1796 Cents was the most complete set ever offered. We consider the catalogue a most valuable work of reference.

THE GEORGE P. FRENCH COLLECTION OF HARD TIMES TOKENS.

Dr. George P. French has placed in our hands for sale at public auction his splendid collection of Hard Times Tokens, one of the most complete ever sold.

The collection includes the following very rare numbers—Low 1, 6, 11, 14 silvered before striking, only one known, 42, in silver, 43, 57, 61, 70, 72, 77, 89, 93, 105, 109 in brass and another on a thin planchet, both believed to be unique, 116, 128, 129, 151, 155, 156 including one struck on a very broad planchet, 168, 171, 175, 176, 179 the Feuchtwanger Three Cents struck in copper, a unique piece. One hundred and forty varieties in all.

This sale will be held on June 30th and will also include a fine collection of Cents, many rare varieties of 1793, 1794 and one of the finest known 1823 over 22 Cents.

Catalogues are now ready and will be sent free on request.

CONFEDERATE AND SOUTHERN STATE NOTES, BY WM. W. BRADBEER

An important historical, biographical and descriptive work on Confederate & Southern State Currency, is now ready for distribution.

Eminent numismatists and other quite competent to judge of the merits of this publicaton have expressed their opinion that it is by far the best and most complete work on the subject.

SUMMARY OF CONTENTS.

Organization of the Confederacy. Its officials, Acts of the Confederate Congress relating to:

"The 15 million Loan." The acceptance of a large amount of United States currency seized at New Orleans, as a "generous donation." Authorization of the issues of currency and prescribing the varying terms of its proposed redemption. Prohibition of the transfer of notes for less than face value. Forbidding southerners to pay debts to northern creditors.

The agitation for and against the enactment of a legal tender law. Drastic measures adapted at various places in the south to prevent the currency's depreciation. Fabulous prices demanded for commodities.

Confederate envoys to Europe and what they accomplished. How supplies of all kinds were obtained despite the Federal blockade. The total amount of currency authorized and the per capita circulation in the South in 1865.

Last days of Confederacy. Its bankruptcy. Personal donations to the treasury in 1865.

Biographical sketches of southerners represented on the currency. Description and origin of the water-marked paper used in printing the notes.

Description of more than 4600 Confederates and Southern State notes; with due regard for the various allegorical and mythological designs. Illustrations of many notes.

Octavo Cloth. . . .$3.50—Post free.
